

Historical Roots of Pizza

“In 1830 the world’s first pizzeria, Antica Pizzeria Port’Alba, opened its doors in Naples, and an industry was born. Antica Pizzeria Port’Alba is still in business, by the way. Fifty-nine years later a pizzaiolo named Raffaele Esposito was invited to the Italian royal palace to make three pizzas for the visit of King Umberto and Queen Margherita of Savoy. The queen was apparently no dummy when it came to politics, so she declared her favorite pizza to be the one with the colors of the Italian flag, red (tomato), white (mozzarella cheese) and green (basil). Thus pizza Margherita was born”

Pizza Napoletana (Neapolitan-Style Pizza)

For pizza connoisseurs, Pizza Napoletana is the gold standard of pizza styles, Naples-style pizza is the essence of simplicity; a few high quality ingredients combined and cooked in such a way to create a whole greater than the parts. The iconic version of Pizza Napoletana is the Margherita-the crust, thin in the middle and thicker around the edges, combines with the acidity of the tomato sauce, sea salt, fresh basil leaves, extra virgin olive oil, and the richness of Fresh Mozzarella Cheese (Fior di Latte). The ultimate Margherita, DOC, is adorned with fresh Mozzarella di Bufala (Buffalo Mozzarella) imported from Italy. We at Sid’s pay tribute to the historic roots of Pizza Napoletana in our Margherita pizzas, and have added a few traditional American pies as well.
